

A Minnesota Trentini Christmas Party Valentini's Supper Club, Chisholm Sat., Dec. 11, 2010

Club President Deb Corradi presents Val and Rom Amistadi with a gift on behalf of fellow club members who honored the Amistadis for the many years they opened their home for the production of antipasto. Proceeds from the sale of some 420 pints of antipasto are used by the club to provide scholarships, help fund various Mesabi Range charities, and assist other worthwhile causes throughout the area.

LoRetta Seppi leads everyone in grace prior to the party's buffet. With her at the table are (clockwise beginning at left) Rudy and Bobbette Zattoni, Mary Kay Hill, Mary Seppi, and Dominic Rauzi. Moments later, they and the other 65 participants treated themselves to a menu of linguini carbonara, meat ravioli, meatballs and sausage, chicken cacciatore, tossed Italian salad and dessert at the Valentini buffet.

The 2010 Trentini Christmas party was organized by (l-r) Sue Gnoza, Claire Rugar and Nancy White. The festivities included a 90-minute social followed by a fine Italian buffet and were accented with music by the I Cantatori Singers and prize drawings. In the spirit of giving during the holiday season, several of the prizes were brought in by anonymous donors and monetary contributions were collected from those attending to assist area food shelves.
